Agenda 30.7 Overall results: April/May 2019 Examinations

The results of April/May 2019 Examinations have been displayed for the information of Council. Sri. M.V. Shankar, Prof. Morabada Mallikarjuna and Prof. T.K. Umesh raised and sought the clarifications for lowest results in II and IV Semester of BA and II Semester of BBA. Prof. Morabada Mallikarjuna asked the concerned members of the council to give reasons or justifications.

Prof. Morabada Mallikarjuna suggested to conduct remedial classes for the courses in which students are adjudged as slow learners. He also expressed his unhappiness over the results of II and IV Semester of BA and II Semester of BBA. He directed the teachers concerned to take necessary action to improve the results.

Sri M.V. Shankar advised to formulate some examination guidelines and reforms by incorporating the requirements which are very essential for the current education scenario and to meet the standards to evolve the college as a competing institute.

Points have also been raised for clarifications by Prof. Morabada Mallikarjuna and Sri M.V. Shankar on results of II Semester M. Sc Mathematics. Dr. N. Ravikumar, the faculty of Mathematics (PG), clarified that the introduction of a new course (paper) caused difficulty for students to get through the semester end examination.

In reply to queries on II and IV Semester of BA and II Semester of BBA, Prof. B.V Sambashivaiah said that required measures and remedial actions will be taken in future to improve the results.

Sri M.V. Shankar suggested presenting the results of students with grades of merit and classification as I, II and III Class in the final year.

Agenda 30.9 Progress Report

The Placement details of UG Programmes have been presented before the council and appreciations are given for the efforts of college in bringing such popular organizations to recruit the students.

Sri M.V. Shankar suggested to take necessary follow up for further increase in the number of students recruited by such organizations. He also suggested taking the feedback from employers and students who joined different organizations. Prof. B.V Sambashivaiah thrown light on the existing feedback collection system in the college from the stake holders. He also mentioned that feedback collection from stakeholders is must and it is one of the requirements of NAAC Assessment and Accreditation process.

The council appreciated and congratulated the teachers who qualified KSET and SLET examinations.

Sri M.V. Shankar suggested to give incentives for teachers who publish research article in reputed journals. In connection to this matter Prof. T.K. Umesha and Prof. B.V. Sambashivaiah said that publishing research articles is part of the routine job of PG teachers and thereby their Academic Performance Index will be increased and the same will be considered for career advancement.

Decision: Noted and Approved.
