Agenda 34.4

Approval of results of Odd Semester UG and PG programmes

Prof. M Kumaraswamy, Professor & Chairperson, DOS in Commerce, University of Mysore, University Nominee to the Academic Council, sought the reasons for 78% results in M. Sc in Physics and M. Sc in Chemistry. Dr. L Mallesha, HOD of PG Department of Chemistry and Dr. Vijaya Manjunathaguru, Coordinator of PG Department of Physics explained the reasons for 78% results to the Council. Dr. Srinivasa, Professor, DOS in Microbiology, University of Mysore opined that may be the students are not able to grasp the topics covered and lack of face to face interactions in the online classes conducted during lock down period might be the reason. Prof. Morabada Mallikarjuna, suggested the concerned department faculty members to give explanations through HOD of the departments to the issues raised and to take appropriate measures to improve the results.

Prof. Morabada Mallikarjuna drew the attention on the result of III Semester BBA. Sri. B Niranjanmurthy, Assistant Director, College Education Division JSS Mahavidyapeetha wanted to know the reasons for low results in some programmes. Mrs. Sreelalitha, Faculty member of UG Department of Commerce and Management tried to explain the actions taken to improve the results of BBA programme. Prof. Morabada Mallikarjuna suggested to give the explanations in writing. Prof. Morabada Mallikarjuna continued explaining the salient features of NEP – 2020 scheduled to implement from the academic year 2021-22 and suggested to take serious actions to improve the results as it is student centric. Sri. B Niranjanmurthy informed the Principal for analysing the results soon after the declaration of results and for appropriate measures to improve results.

Agenda 34.5

Approval for introducing Four Years UG Honours programmes from the academic year 2021-22

Dr. H. C. Honnappa put forth the agenda for the approval of Academic Council. Prof. M Kumaraswamy sought the clarifications regarding the Four Years UG Honours programmes to be introduced in the college. Dr. Prabuswamy clarified that the college is planning to adopt the existing B.Voc programmes schemes to some extent in the Four Years UG Honours programmes. Dr. H. C. Honnappa said that the college intends to adopt the schemes and procedures of University of Mysore for the Four Years UG Honours programmes with minor modifications under autonomous college regulations. The programmes are aligned according to NSQF levels. Prof. Morabada Mallikarjuna said this is the right time to concentrate, utilizing the opportunity to improve humanities departments, suggesting the faculties to work hard in this direction.

Dr. Malini Professor & Chairman, DOS in Zoology, University of Mysore, wanted to know about the combinations offered and the freedom for students to select the subjects and combinations of their choice. Dr. H. C. Honnappa clarified that three to four options are provided for students to select the subjects and combinations of their choice. Dr. Srinivasa, Prof. M Kumaraswamy and Sri Shankara Prasad, Excelsoft, Mysuru suggested to take opinions of the students. Dr. Malini further suggested the counseling of the students about the options and also the employment opportunities. Prof. Morabada Mallikarjuna suggested to educate the students with the options provided for studies in the Four Years UG Honours programmes. Sri. B Niranjanmurthy suggested that the Four Years UG Honours programmes should be helpful to students in career and job opportunities.

Decision: Approved

Agenda 34.6

Progress report

Dr. Malini wanted recognising the services of NCC and NSS students worked as warriors during COVID 19 lock down-period.

Dr. Malini enquired about the financial assistance / seed money to faculties with Ph.D for carrying out research activities to avail grants from funding agencies and publications of research work. Prof. M Kumaraswamy suggested to provide financial assistance to faculties with Ph.D for research activities. Prof. Morabada Mallikarjuna agreed to consider the suggestions.

Prof. Morabada Mallikarjuna observed that the ratio of the number of research publications is less compared to the number of faculty members. Dr. Malini suggested to avail the expertise of University Professors for research publications and presentations. She further suggested to give permission to faculty members for interactions with University Professors. Prof. Morabada Mallikarjuna suggested to inform the faculties to work hard for more research publications and presentations.

Regarding the library informations, Dr. Malini suggested to make use of video lectures of SWAYAM, MOOC and other available open E-sources, learning resources instead of procuring books and journals to library and to integrate resources to LMS. Dr. B Y Sathishkumar, HOD of PG department of Biotechnology said, the faculties of his department are using the E- resources in the class room teaching.

Decision: Approved

Agenda 34.7

Any other matter

Sri Shankara Prasad said the B.Voc and M.Voc programmes have sufficient job opportunities and suggested to motivate students to opt for these programme. Prof. Morabada Mallikarjuna appended the suggestions.

Prof. M Kumaraswamy and Dr. Srinivasa suggested to motivate faculties also through incentives and promotions.

Sri. Gokul Ashok said B. Voc Animation programme has wide scope for career opportunities and employments. Prof. M Kumaraswamy said NEP 2020 has provided ample scope for introduction of Animation programmes.
