Teachers should provide prior intimation about upcoming programs and encourage student participation through better interaction. It is important that teachers engage with all students equally, rather than showing favoritism. Additionally, all subjects and syllabus content should be thoroughly covered before the examinations, as incomplete coverage negatively impacts student preparation. While explaining concepts, teachers should use multiple and varied examples rather than relying on a single example, as this helps in better understanding of different topics.

I am full happy this is college

to encourage extra activities and the best communication teachers the quality of the education poor should improve it then made seminar in the class so students will improve there commutation skill and confidence and teachers response is very poor should improve it overall the campus is very good but education and extracurricular activities is so poor

Teaching is not good we can't understand problems they will take the book and they will write on board that's it

Teachers what to explain more thing about course related. And there communication was very good. There whant to share all technology about AI and DS algorithm etc.

Most of all teachers simply teach the syllabus even they skip the concepts and they move on. Only some are doing very well. We students are also not perfect and We ask for Perfectness 🤖
